

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) on NEET (UG)-2026 Re-examination

S.N.	Question	Reply
1.	Is the examination fee going to be refunded?	Dear Candidate, it is informed that the option to update present address details, along with city selection with two choices, has presently been made available to candidates. The module for sharing bank account details for refund of examination fee will be provided to candidates by 21 st May 2026.
2.	Can I change the medium of examination?	No. The medium of examination selected during submission of the application form earlier is final and cannot be changed.
3.	A message appears stating that “the city selection is unavailable based on the updated address and the application medium chosen during application form filling.” What should I do?	It is informed that the medium of examination selected by the candidate during submission of the application form earlier is fixed and cannot be changed at this stage. Candidates may refer to Para 6 (ix) of Chapter 4 of the Information Bulletin of NEET (UG)-2026 regarding the available medium options and corresponding States/locations.
4.	Will the same examination centre allotted earlier be allotted again?	Examination centres are allotted on the basis of the city selected by the candidate. Therefore, the examination centre allotted for the re-examination may not necessarily be the same as the earlier centre.
5.	What is the date and timing of the NEET (UG)-2026 Re-examination?	The NEET (UG)-2026 Re-examination will be conducted on 21 June 2026 (Sunday) from 02:00 PM to 05:15 PM including the time for formalities.
6.	Why are candidates being given 15 minutes extra time?	An additional 15 minutes are being provided for completion of documentation, verification, and other examination-related formalities.

S.N.	Question	Reply
7.	I faced discomfort/issues during the examination held on 03 May 2026 due to centre-related problems. What should I do?	Candidates are advised to forward their complaints/grievances, along with supporting details/documents, to the NTA Helpdesk at neetug2026@nta.ac.in .
8.	The examination centre allotted to me earlier was far from my residence. What can be done?	It is informed that the centres are allotted randomly to the candidates based on choices of selected city by them.
9.	The date of NEET (UG)-2026 Re-examination is clashing with another examination. Can the date be changed?	No. The date of examination has already been finalized and cannot be changed.
10.	Do I need to pay any additional fee for the re-examination?	No additional payment is required from the candidates for appearing for the re-examination of NEET (UG)-2026.